Dear Sir,

The period for which the services of Mr. M.S. Ramachandran, Accountant, have been loaned by Government to the Company expires by the 21st October 1936.

As the annual audit of the accounts of the Company has to be taken up by the auditors now, it is suggested we may request Government to continue Mr. Ramachandran's services for a further period of six months, for the present. The question of retaining him for a further term or of making any other permanent arrangements may be taken up after the audit is over.

If you are agreeable to this suggestion, I shall be obliged by your sending me your reply to that effect early to enable us to address Government.

Yours faithfully,
THE MYSORE SUGAR CO. LTD.
